

MEET THE ENGLISH TEAM

Alice Jahanpour - Teacher of English

I have been teaching English at The College of Richard Collyer, since 2007; before that I worked in a library and a bookshop. I have always loved stories and books and writing and playing with language and find getting to teach all of these things a real privilege!

Claire Mummery - Teacher of English

I have had the pleasure of teaching English for twelve years in the sixth-form sector. English is the most wonderful, thought-provoking subject to take at A Level; it will shape your understanding of the human condition. I particularly enjoy reading poetry, American novels and keeping up with contemporary fiction.
